

Trigon Dividend Fund
Fact Sheet | December 2020
Overview

Trigon Dividend Fund invests worldwide in companies which have high or growing dividend yields. The Fund's portfolio consists of approximately 25-50 different securities. While the primary focus of the Fund is equities, the Fund may invest in other instruments, such as convertible or high-yield bonds, to achieve its investment goals.

The Fund's investment style is active management and stock-picking to identify attractively valued companies. The Fund invests into companies which have strong balance sheet and free cash flow generation to sustain high dividend payouts.

The Fund's goal is to offer long term capital appreciation while providing above market risk-adjusted returns.

Fund Manager's Comments

The volatile and eventful year ended with a positive note for global stock markets. The best month in the short history of the Trigon Dividend Fund was followed by a successful 4.2% growth in December. At the same time, the MSCI World High Dividend Yield index rose 0.9% in euro terms. By comparison, in December, the MSCI World stock market index, the European Stoxx Europe 600 index and the MSCI EFM CEEC ex RUS regional index for Eastern Europe rose respectively by 1.9%, 2.6% and 6.3% in euro terms.

Notably, Trigon Dividend Fund made its first dividend payment to investors on the 15th of December. D-unit holders received 0.78 EUR per unit. As a result, the NAV or net asset value of the D-unit also decreased by the amount of the pay-out. The next pay-out will take place in December 2021, i.e., dividends will be distributed to D-unit investors once a year.

Even though the Trigon Dividend Fund started operations just before one of the sharpest declines in history, the Fund was able to restore and end the first operating year with a positive return of 6.3% (C-unit's returns since inception 28.02.2020). At the same time, the MSCI World High Dividend Yield Index registered a return of 1.8% in euro terms.

Trigon Dividend Fund trades at a weighted average of 1.1x P/B, 11.3x 2021 expected earnings, and with a dividend yield of 7.7% based on 2020 expected earnings. In comparison, MSCI World High Dividend Yield Index traded as of last month at P/B ratio of 2.5x, P/E 18.6x, and dividend yield 3.7%.

It is important to keep in mind that in 2020, regulators did not allow many companies in the financial sector to pay dividends. As a result, we also expect extraordinary dividends from several financial companies belonging to the Fund this year, which may further increase the expected dividend yield of 7.7% for this year.

NB! Starting from 28th of February 2020, Trigon Baltic Fund changed its name into Trigon Dividend Fund and the investment strategy was substantially renewed. While previously the Fund's investments were focused primarily on the Baltic region, then going forward the Fund will be investing worldwide into companies with high or growing dividends. *The calculation of the performance fee is based on the so-called high water mark ("HWM") principle. In this context the HWM principle is the following: after the Performance fee has been calculated for the first time in the calendar year, the additional Performance fee will be calculated in the same year only if the net asset value of the Unit has increased from the last calculation of the Performance fee.

 The Fund's investment strategy was changed on the 28th of February 2020. While previously the Fund's investments were focused primarily on the Baltic region, then going forward the Fund will be investing worldwide into companies with high or growing dividend yields. Performance prior to 28.02.2020 was achieved under circumstances that no longer apply. Fund was first launched in 2005.

The objective of the Management Company is to pay a dividend to the holders of the D Unit each year. See table of the dividend payments on the next page.
